CALL FOR REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE, EL PASO CO.,
COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO., Sept 29, 1887.

In pursuance of the action of the republican county committee, a convention of the republican party of El Paso county is hereby called to meet in Court House hall in Colorado Springs, on Saturday, the 8th day of October, 1887, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several offices to be filled by the people of said county, at the general election to be held on the Tuesday following the first Monday of November, 1887, as follows:

One county clerk.
One county treasurer.
One county judge.
One county sheriff.
One county commissioner.
One county surveyor.
One county superintendent of schools.
One coroner.
And for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said convention.

The several precincts are entitled to the following delegates:

A. A. McKinney, Chairman.

Frank N. Hopkins, Secretary.

We ... to Col. David F. Day of Chipeta over the ... of ... near Ouray. The many friends of the gallant and fiery colonel in this city will be glad to hear of his success in [illegible] this race.

Judge Thomas C. Manning, United States minister to Mexico, died in New York yesterday morning. He was a man of marked ability and far superior to his predecessor, Mr. Jackson, who was appointed by President Cleveland but who resigned about a year ago.

Evidently the democrats of Garfield county are willing to take the responsibility of inaugurating the late Ute war for they have nominated Sheriff Kendall for re-election. It is to be hoped that Garfield county contains enough honest men who will not endorse Kendall's action in the late fiasco by re-electing him to the office which he has dishonored and disgraced.

Scarcely has the recollection of the Chicago 4th railroad horror faded from the public mind when another similar, equally as horrible, and fatal accident has taken its place. The accident yesterday was due to the ... of the railroad employees. If the responsibility of its occurrence could be traced to the proper parties they should not be permitted to escape with merely the reprimand of a coroner's jury.

A committee appointed for the purpose by the general assembly Knights of Labor now in session at Minneapolis, yesterday presented some startling investigations on the Richmond and Oakdale railroad, and resolved that a memorial be sent to congress with the object of the appointment of a government telegraph might be brought before the public. Considering what a fine organized labor has always met in Jay Gould the action of these ...

The Solid Muldoon publishes the following:

A man named C. G. Dey rode a horse from Denver to Omaha yesterday all the way on the sleepers' beat, the horse being in charge of a porter who was very kind to the animal. When Mr. Keyes, the manager for Pullman, heard of it he sent word to have Dey arrested for cruelty to animals. A lot of fuss was made over it, but it was all right. The horse seemed to enjoy the ride, and ... for the whole road. The next time the animal gets left on the division and can't ... Pullman to ... into the ... road pay.

Many people in the east do not expect such refined features in a western gaining town. The action of the mob and the comment of the papers would have ... credit to the most civilized community in the east.

Mayor Lee of Denver, in his speech before the Arapahoe county convention Monday, said: "The city administration is so thoroughly republican that every man under me must do his duty by the republican party." If the remark meant anything it was an official notice on the part of the mayor of Denver that all office holders should work for the republican ticket. If the ... there is no impropriety in this. But it was not a very wise remark for the mayor of a large city to make. It would have been very much better if he had said that they should do their duty as officers to all ... respective of party. We are glad to notice that the convention did not endorse his sentiments, but adopted the following resolution.

Resolved, That we demand of all public officers the strictest impartiality in ward all persons and classes in the performance of their official ...

The Knights of Labor assembled in Minneapolis seem to be a very conservative body of men. They were freely interviewed on political questions. One question was "What is your opinion as to the ... of a national labor ...

Mr. Charles F. Jameson of Manitou Park yesterday made the final proof on his homestead entry before Probate Judge Bennett of the District Court.

A satisfactory test was made last evening of some of the new arc lights. The street lights will be put up to-day and will be in operation this evening.

Mr. F. A. Connell has furnished four flags as first awards to be used by the boys in display, big duck square observations on the city hall building.

A. G. Atkinson & Co. of Denver will open an exclusive novelty store on or about the 15th inst. at [illegible] Mr. Atkinson is well [illegible] next week.

The Gazette office acknowledges an invitation from Mr. Harry C. Smith, Miss Georgia Joseph R. Grismer and Phoebe Davies, who appear at the opera house this Monday evening in "Called Back."

The Rev. A. C. Parke informs us that Dr. I. I. Lundgren successfully performed last Monday a delicate and difficult surgical operation on his eyes, the result of which is expected to restore perfect eyesight.

The Monmouth County Central Committee have issued a call for a Republican county convention to meet on Monday, October [illegible] This is for the purpose of selecting delegates who will properly represent the Republicans of Monmouth county at the county convention, to be held [illegible] for the nomination of county officers and superintendents of the poor.

F. Bellis has just received from the secretary of the State Fair Association at Pueblo the premium awarded for [illegible] exhibit of fruit at the late fair. The medal is neatly engraved with Mr. Bellis' name and address together with the name of the article for which the award was made.

The officers of Company A, who participated in the Ute war, have not yet received the pay for their services and it is very uncertain when they will. So there are no funds in the state treasury with which to pay them. They will in all probability be compelled to wait until the assembling of the next legislature.

The semi-annual election of the B. F. Crowell Hose company took place last evening and resulted in the choice of W. E. Johnson foreman, H. S. Rogers, first assistant foreman, and Harry Wolcott, secretary and treasurer. After the meeting the members of the company repaired to the Delmonico restaurant, where they partook of refreshments.

In our advertising columns this morning it will be noticed that the county commissioners have invited sealed proposals for the construction of an addition to the county jail. It is proposed to put another story on the present building that will accommodate twelve more prisoners and to also add a couple of rooms for the use of the jailer and his family.

The piano recital to be given by Professor Otto Pfefferkorn, of Denver, at the First Methodist church next Friday evening, will be the first of a series of fine concerts to be given under the auspices of the ladies and society of that church during the coming autumn and winter months. The programme of the recital this week appears in another column.

The following report of the Fairview school for the month ending October 7th [illegible] is reported to us by the teacher Miss Mary Dean. Pupils neither absent nor tardy, Lillie Dyer, Harry Wade, Charlie Wade and Harry Dyer, pupils not absent, Ida Taylor, Ada Taylor, and Robert Campbell, pupils not tardy, Courtney Bishop, Nellie Dyer and Maggie Dyer. The school is located at Table Rock.

The third lecture in the course given under the auspices of the Society of Christian Endeavor was delivered by the Rev. James P. Gregg at the Congregational church last evening, and was well attended. The subject was "The Medieval City—Florence." It was illustrated with stereopticon views of Florentine architecture, statuary, paintings, etc. On Tuesday evening of next week Professor W. D. Sheldon, of Colorado college, will lecture on "The Ancient City—Glimpses of Old Rome."

Mrs. H. B. Stevens gave a very delightful and successful musical at her residence on South Tejon street last Monday evening, which was attended by quite a number of that lady's friends. The musical was given for the purpose of introducing Miss E. S. Bowker, an accomplished vocalist from the First Baptist church of Denver. Music and Miss Eastman rendered pianos from Brown, Iowa, in addition to the Misses Bruce and Edith Coombs, pupils of Professor Rice, violinist, and Mrs. C. A. Richards and Mrs. Clemmons, vocalists. Miss Bowker and Mrs. Clemmons sang solos.

The county commissioners, on their meeting next day, transacted little business of a public nature. The county sealed proposals for erecting an addition to the county jail. The application of C. W. Higgins as [illegible] was referred to County Counsel Senter. J. C. Woodbury, [illegible] The following bills were ordered: H. H. Stevens, livery, $3; L. S. Arkenbout, road work, $5.50. The board then adjourned until Saturday morning when they will visit Elbert county for the purpose of viewing the proposed [illegible] in the county road in that place.

Mr. George O. Nevins came in from his ranch near Granger yesterday. He thinks that nearly 50 votes will be polled in that precinct next month. Granger was made a voting precinct by the county commissioners last summer, and the people residing there are very anxious to poll a full vote. The public installation of officers in that precinct will take place next Saturday afternoon, and it is expected that a delegation favorable to the nomination of Mr. J. C. Plumb for county commissioner will be sent to the republican county convention. The [illegible] precinct is thought will have a large representation.

The Denver Republican thus refers to the marriage of Miss Joseph Grismer [illegible] Miss Grismer, accompanied by her husband, Phoebe Davies, and the Powerful Company, will appear at the Opera House this evening in the new play, "Called Back." Miss Grismer has won golden opinions from all sorts of people by her charming personality and her excellent acting. She is a general favorite, and her marriage to Mr. Davies, who is also a member of the company, will be the occasion of many congratulations. Mr. Davies is a young actor of considerable talent, and has established a reputation for himself in the character of Barrett McCullough, Kennard & Scott. Mr. Grismer, who organized and directs the company, is one of the few remaining stars of the old school, and is the only legitimate successor to the late Edwin Adams, to whom many regard him as a striking resemblance. His dramatic training has been long and severe, and he has had [illegible] ranging from supporting Charlotte Cushman to Lemoyne Rossi, the latter [illegible] which [illegible] being the best [illegible] he ever played with.

The police magistrate fined four men $5 and costs each yesterday for drunk and disorderly.

Know all Men by These Presents.

It has come to our knowledge that because of our [illegible] sales of Wall Paper that a number of our competitors in order to make a sale have resorted to cutting the price below the standard rate. Now be it known, that we will not be undersold by anyone in our line and from henceforth we shall sell Fine Wall Paper for 25c per double roll. Gilts for 50c per double roll and upwards. All other grades in the same proportion. It will pay you to come and see us and we shall take pleasure in showing you these Papers whether you buy or not.

We also have for sale the very best brands of White Lead, Oils and Varnishes, Brushes, Glass and Putty.
